5. Decision-making

When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and emergency healthcare. Major decisions must be made as follows:

a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

Type of Major Decision	Joint (parents make these decisions together)	Limited (only the parent named below has authority to make these decisions)
School / Educational	[X]	[] (Name):
Health care (not emergency) including counseling, evaluators and treatment providers.	[X]	[] (Name):
Other: Extracurricular Activities	[X]	[] (Name):
Other: Driver's License	[X]	[] (Name):
Other:	[]	[] (Name):

Important! Parenting involves decision-making in many areas. If you believe there are other decisions that are important to your family, list them under "Other" above. Some examples include: extracurricular activities, international travel, cell phones, driver's licenses, tattoos, and haircuts.

b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

[] There are no reasons to limit major decision-making.

[] Major decision-making must be limited because one of the parents has problems as described in 3.a. above.

[] Major decision-making should be limited because (check all that apply):

☐ Both parents are against shared decision-making.

☐ One of the parents does not want to share decision-making and this is reasonable because of :

☐ problems as described in 3.b. above.

☐ the history of each parent's participation in decision-making.

☐ the parents' ability and desire to cooperate with each other in decision-making.

☐ the distance between the parents' homes makes it hard to make timely decisions together.

[X] Other: It is inequitable to grant Christine Moyer sole decision making while father is financially responsible for a portion of the expenses. A parenting coordinator will be in place to assist the parties with decision making. If the parties are unable to reach agreement after an email exchange on OFW, the parenting coordinator will make the final decision.

If either parent wants to enroll a child in an activity that does not financially obligate the other parent, they may do so as long as it does not impact the other parent's residential time.

When a parenting coordinator is no longer in place, disagreements re: decision making shall be submitted to Judge Rosen on written materials only.

6. Dispute Resolution

Important! After this parenting plan is signed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent disagree about shared decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute resolution provider before going back to court. The court may only require a dispute resolution provider if there are no limitations in 3.a. above. If a dispute resolution provider is checked below, the parents may, and sometimes must, use this provider before filing a Petition to Change a Parenting Plan or a Motion for Contempt for not following the plan. Check your county's Local Court Rules.

a. The parents will go to (check one):

☒ the dispute resolution provider below (before they may go to court):

☐ Mediation (mediator or agency name):

[X] Arbitration (arbitrator or agency name): Parenting coordinator in place for first two years following entry of the parenting plan, thereafter, Judge Steve Rosen (Ret.).

[] Counseling (counselor or agency name):

If a dispute resolution provider is not named above or if the named provider is no longer available, the parents may agree on a provider or ask the court to name one.

Important! Unless there is an emergency, the parents must participate in the dispute resolution process listed above in good faith, before going to court for disagreements about joint decisions or what parts of this plan mean. This section does not apply to disagreements about money or support.

[] court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling). (If you check this box, skip to section 7 below and do not fill out 6.b.)

- b. If mediation, arbitration, or counseling is required, one parent must notify the other parent by (check one): [] certified mail. [X] other (specify) :

Our Family Wizard.

The parents will pay for the mediation, arbitration, or counseling services as follows (check one):

[X] (Name): Christine Moyer will pay 50%, (Name): Robert Edward Moyer II will pay 50%.

[] based on each parents' Proportional Share of Income (percentage) from line 6 of the Child Support Worksheet.

[] as decided through the dispute resolution process.

What to expect in the dispute resolution process:

- Preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan.
- If you reach an agreement, it must be put into writing, signed, and both parents must get a copy.
- If the court finds that you have used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without a good reason, the court can order you to pay financial sanctions (penalties) including the other parent's legal fees.
- You may go back to court if the dispute resolution process doesn't solve the disagreement or if you disagree with the arbitrator's decision.

7. Custodian

1 The custodian is (name): Christine Moyer solely for the purpose of all state and federal statutes
2 which require a designation or determination of custody. Even though one parent is called the
3 custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in this plan.

4 (Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than custody.
5 However, some state and federal laws require that one person be named the custodian. The 6 custodian is the person with whom the children are scheduled to reside a majority of their time.)

7 Parenting Time Schedule (Residential Provisions)

13. Moving with the Child/ren (Relocation)

Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, they must give notice within 5 days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate, and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put themselves or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, they must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens, the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the relocating person to 1 pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

2 Right to object

3 A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school
4 district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same
5 school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move, but they may ask to
6 change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 7 26.09.260).

8 An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with children and Petition about
9 Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection
10 with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered
11 time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy
12 to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and 13 served no later than 30 days after the Notice of intent to Move with Children was received.

14 Right to move

15 During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different
16 school district with the children unless they have a court order allowing the move.

17 After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children
18 without getting a court order allowing the move.

19 After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children
20 pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- 21 • The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- 22 • The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the 23 Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the 24 court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the relocating
25 person believes that they or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)
- 26 • The court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

27 Parenting Plan after move

28 If the relocating person served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is 29 filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- 30 • Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting
31 Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by 32 contempt unless it has been approved by a court.
- 33 • Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte Motion for 34 Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with Children (FL 35 Relocate 706).
